Peter Escaped from Prison

Acts 12

STORY POINT: GOD RESCUED PETER FROM PRISON.

King Herod Agrippa put Peter into prison. While Peter was in prison, other believers in the church prayed and asked God to help him.

The king planned for Peter to be killed. The night before his execution, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers. All of a sudden, an angel of the Lord appeared and a bright light shone in Peter's prison cell. The angel struck Peter on the side and woke him up. The chains fell off of Peter's wrists. The angel led Peter out of the prison. Then the angel left. When Peter looked around, he realized the Lord had rescued him from prison and from certain death!

Peter hurried to the house of Mary, where the believers had gathered to pray. When Peter knocked at the door, a servant named Rhoda answered. She heard Peter's voice and was so happy she rushed back inside, leaving Peter standing outside. "Peter is here!" she announced.

But the others didn't believe her. Peter kept knocking, and when they opened the door, they could hardly believe it. Peter motioned to them to be quiet, and he told them how the Lord had rescued him from prison.

When the sun came up, the soldiers at the prison couldn't figure out what happened to Peter, and the king punished the soldiers because Peter had escaped.

Christ Connection: God answered the people's prayers for Peter. God had a plan for Peter and the church, and He rescued Peter from his enemies. Peter knew he would face death because he believed in Jesus, but he kept going so he could share the good news of the gospel.
